Governors for CMAT Academies (Local Governing Boards)

The Challenger Multi Academy Trust (CMAT) is looking for new governors to join the Local Governing Boards of our academies in Kempston and Dunstable. We are looking for individuals with skills, experience and expertise in education, business, finance and personnel or engaged in working with the local community.

If you want to play an active part in the future of this exciting development, please email: governors@challengermat.org for further information or arrange an appointment.
