Statement of intent

Daubeney Academy recognises that certain groups in society have historically been disadvantaged on account of unlawful discrimination they have faced on the basis of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

This policy will put in place a range of actions to eliminate prejudice, unlawful discrimination and victimisation within the academy community and workforce.

1. Legislative framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to statutory legislation including, but not limited to, the following:

- UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
- UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Special Educational Needs Regulations 2014
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Equality Act 2010
- The Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties) Regulations 2011

1.2. The Equality Act 2010 provides a modern, single legal framework with three broad duties:

- Eliminate discrimination
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

1.3. Daubeney Academy fully understands the principles of the Act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equal opportunities.

1.4. A protected characteristic, under the Act, is as follows:

- Age
- Disability
- Race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin
- Sex (including transgender people)
- Gender reassignment
- Maternity and pregnancy
- Religion and belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and civil partnership (for employees)

1.5. The Act makes it unlawful for the responsible body of a academy to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential pupil:

- In relation to admissions.
- In the way it provides education for pupils.
- In the way it provides pupils access to any benefit, facility or service.
- By excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment.

2. Principles and aims

2.1. We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents and carers, as of equal value, regardless of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

2.2. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barriers and disadvantages which people may face in relation to their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

2.3. Daubeney Academy will promote race equality and have due regard to eliminate unlawful racial discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and promote good relations between people of different racial groups.

2.4. Daubeney Academy will promote disability equality throughout the academy, ensuring equality of opportunity, eliminating unlawful discrimination, eliminating disability-related harassment and encouraging participation by disabled people in public life.

2.5. Daubeney Academy will promote gender equality by eliminating unlawful discrimination and harassment, and promote equality of opportunity between men and women, girls and boys.

2.6. Transgender people are explicitly covered by the gender equality duty. For the purposes of this policy, the term 'transgender' refers to an individual whose gender expression or identity is different from that traditionally associated with the sex they were assigned at birth. This academy will respect the confidentiality of those seeking gender re-assignment and will provide a supportive environment within the social community.

2.7. Daubeney Academy is opposed to all forms of prejudice and recognises that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice-related discrimination may fare less well in the education system.

2.8. Daubeney Academy will ensure that all staff comply with the appropriate equality legislation and regulations.

2.9. Daubeney Academy Admissions Policy will not discriminate in any way.

2.10. The academy will:

- Ensure staff are aware of their responsibilities, are given necessary training and support, and report progress to the governing body.
- Ensure that the recording and reporting of equality and diversity is sufficiently scrutinised.
- Foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging, and ensure this is promoted in our policies, procedures and activities.
- Observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development, and ensure that all policies and procedures benefit all employees and potential employees regardless of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.
- Reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist.
- Engage with a range of groups and individuals to ensure that those who are affected by a policy, procedure or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones.
- Ensure that policies, procedures and activities benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in the public life of everyone, regardless of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.
- Ensure staff promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in the academy, challenging inappropriate language and behaviour, responding appropriately to incidents of discrimination and harassment, and showing appropriate support for pupils with additional needs, maintaining a good level of awareness of issues surrounding equalities.

3. Objectives

3.1. Whilst continuously aiming to improve the implementation of equality-related policies and procedures, Daubeney Academy has established the following objectives:

- To monitor changes to the curriculum to ensure they result in good outcomes for pupils in all vulnerable groups, and to review the curriculum in light of new performance measures.
- To offer appropriate qualifications in English for pupils in all vulnerable groups.
- To implement effective strategies to support pupils in all vulnerable groups following linear exam courses.
- To improve the quality of support for pupils in all vulnerable groups in the classroom.
- To continue to explore the use of new technologies to support pupils in all vulnerable groups in accessing their learning. With special investigation taking place regarding the use of technology in modern foreign languages, internal exams and group work.

5. Gender reassignment

- 5.1. The Act ensures legal protection against discrimination (direct or indirect) for everyone under the nine protected characteristics mentioned previously, including gender reassignment.
- 5.2. A person has the protected characteristic of gender reassignment if that person is proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of reassigning the person's sex by changing physiological or other attributes of sex.

- 5.5. A glossary of terminology related to the transgender field can be found on the Gender Identity Research and Education Society Website.

6. Uniform/dress policy

- 6.1. The Act does not deal specifically with academy uniform or other aspects of appearance, such as hair colour and style, and the wearing of jewellery and make-up, but the general requirement not to discriminate in the treatment of pupils applies here in relation to other aspects of the academy policy.

- 6.2. Daubeney Academy will ensure that blanket uniform policies do not discriminate because of race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.
- 6.3. Daubeney Academy will be sensitive to the needs of different cultures, races and religions and act reasonably in accommodating these needs, without compromising important academy policies, such as academy safety or discipline.

7. Curriculum

- 7.1. All pupils will be entitled to access to a curriculum and to teaching and learning opportunities which meet their needs, including extra support where this has been identified as a statutory need. When planning the curriculum, the academy will take every opportunity to promote and advance equality.
- 7.2. The academy will develop an appropriate 11-18 curriculum for all pupils in all vulnerable groups.

8. Promoting equality

In order to meet our objectives, the academy has identified the following priorities:

- 8.1. Daubeney Academy will provide auxiliary aids that are directly related to disabled children's educational needs as a reasonable adjustment so they can integrate wholly in all parts of academy life.
- 8.2. Staff will ensure that all pupils are able to take part in extra-curricular activities and residential visits, and the academy will monitor uptake of these visits to ensure no one is disadvantaged on the grounds of a protected characteristic.
- 8.3. Daubeney Academy will ensure that all forms of prejudice-motivated bullying is taken seriously and dealt with equally and firmly.
- 8.4. There will be differential schemes of work designed to meet the abilities and learning styles of all pupils.
- 8.5. There will be a clearly defined disciplinary system, which will be consistently enforced.
- 8.6. The academy will increase access for disabled children and young people to the academy curriculum and will take necessary steps to meet pupils' needs by using a variety of approaches and planning reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils, enabling our pupils to take as full a part as possible in the activities of the academy.
- 8.7. The academy will ensure there is adequate access to the physical environment of the academy.

- 8.8. The academy will improve the delivery of written information to disabled children and young people.
- 8.9. The academy will seek the views of advisory staff, outside agencies and local academies.

- 8.11. The academy will consult with stakeholders, i.e. pupils, parents/carers, staff and relevant community groups, to establish equality objectives and draw up a plan based on information collected on protected groups and accessibility planning. These equality objectives will be reviewed and reported on annually.
- 8.12. Bullying and prejudice will be carefully monitored and dealt with accordingly. Regular training will be given to both existing and new staff to ensure that they are aware of the process for reporting and following up incidents of prejudice-related bullying.
